Step House

Experience the exceptional

Welcome

TO STEP HOUSE HOTEL

Step House Hotel is a beautiful boutique property set in the heritage village of Borris, Carlow between the heather clad Blackstair Mountains and banks of the River Barrow.

Originally built in 1808, many of the original characteristics have been wonderfully restored, complementing the stunning décor and unique features of this hotel.

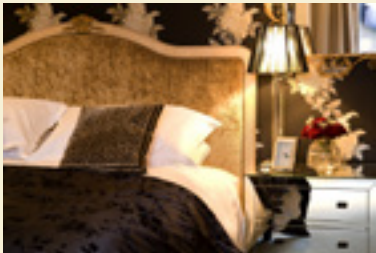

It upholds an excellent culinary reputation with guests visiting from all over Ireland to experience its ambient setting and taste experience. Whether it's for a weekend of pure indulgence or a wedding day to remember, Step House Hotel is sure to leave a lasting impression.

Sleep

IN LUXURY

The luxurious bedrooms at Step House Hotel boast original Georgian features. The attention to detail in the décor is second to none. The rooms are also designed in a sweeping curve allowing panoramic views of the rolling countryside as it rises to meet Mount Leinster.

Step inside and you'll find Irish Art, elegant furniture, free internet access and a great night's sleep. Open the French doors on to your terrace, and begin your day enjoying the stunning views.

Dine

IN OUR RESTAURANT OR BRASSERIE

Step House Hotel boasts two dining areas – the renowned 'Cellar Restaurant' and the '1808' Brasserie.

The Cellar Restaurant offers a fabulous dining experience, boasting open log fires and vaulted ceilings. The award winning restaurant offers international cuisine with menus designed seasonally which include locally sourced produce, ensuring the highest quality of food.

1808 Brasserie is aptly named indicating the year that the original part of the building was erected. The style of this bar is traditional yet sensual with mahogany and brass décor. Ideal for unwinding in the evening with good conversation or relaxing by the log fire.

Weddings

Step House Hotel has been specifically designed to host the most romantic and personal weddings. The hotel features a stunning ballroom to facilitate weddings for up to 180 guests.

The ballroom will leave a lasting impression on your guests, tastefully decorated with the finest furnishings and touches. The beautiful French arched doors lead out on to the landscaped gardens with Mount Leinster and the Blackstair Mountains peering in the distance.

This idyllic country setting with its relaxed yet elegant ballroom, award winning cuisine and traditional hospitality will leave friends and family with memories to treasure forever.
